

David Melville Photography

The wedding took place at Headley Parish Church on Saturday, between Miss Glenda Monica Ewens, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ewens, of 71 Chalet Hill, Bordon, and Spr. Michael Stuart Clarke, R.E., only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Clarke, of "Sandycroft," Forest Road, Whitehill. The bride is employed as a typist by Messrs. Crosby and Co., Farnham; the bridegroom is stationed at Tidworth.

The rector (the Rev. D. Bentley) officiated. During the service the hymns "Lead us, Heavenly Father, Lead us" and "Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven" and Psalm 23 were sung, and the organist played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a full-length white satin sheath dress, with long sleeves and a train. She also wore a pearl and diamante head-dress and carried a bouquet of deep pink rosebuds.

Chief bridesmaid Miss Jacqueline Clarke (sister of the bridegroom) and other attendants were Miss Ruth Flarry and Miss Paula Ewens (cousins of the bride). All wore geranium pink full-length dresses with cream accessories and carried cream rosebud bouquets. The bridegroom gave a pearl drop on a gold chain to Miss Clarke, and a silver cross on chain for the other two bridesmaids. Mr. Reginald Ewens, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following a reception at The Tangerine Club, Bordon, the couple left for a honeymoon in Torquay, the bride travelling in an emerald green suit, a matching hat and black accessories.